

Ashburton's Astounding Activities

A large group of people, likely a school or organization, are posed in front of a large, classical-style monument. They are wearing matching blue shirts and blue hats. The monument has a prominent column and a pediment. The scene is outdoors with trees and a clear sky in the background.

Hi there Room 6, this is Bethany, Shinzo and Jasmin. We are having cool fun today out at Lake Hood, doing all of the fun water sports. We just found been talking to some of the people who own houses out here and they said that they loved how whoever comes to Lake Hood keeps it clean and healthy. We all heard the birds singing and cherping along and even saw some of the new salmon that have just been put into the lake, maybe we will catch some for tea.

Anyway see you when we come back.

From Shinzo, Bethany and Jasmin
